

Richmond Times-Dispatch

VMFA Adds Work Of Prominent Richmond Photographer

March 10, 2016

The VMFA announced Wednesday that it has acquired a substantial collection of work from the estate of Louis Draper, a Richmond native who earned his fame as a street photographer and as a teacher and mentor to other photographers after he moved to New York in 1957.