PHOTOS DOCUMENTING UNUSUAL LAWS ACROSS ALL 50 U.S.
STATES

By Jason Kottke, July 31, 2017

When a normal person finds out that it's illegal in Alabama to carry an ice cream cone in your back pocket, they might say, huh, that's interesting. But photographer Olivia Locher took that strange fact and turned it into a project documenting the weirdest laws across all 50 US states (aided by a 70s children's book called Crazy Laws). Locher has collected the photos into a book, I Fought the Law, which is out in September.
