

Some of the photographs possess a macabre, ethereal quality. For these, Niemi used a long exposure time, while manipulating the direction of the light to create figures that appear as temporary as the rented rooms they occupy (above).
Photographs by Anja Niemi

Anja Niemi: Do Not Disturb can be seen at The Little Black Gallery, London SW10, from March 27–April 21. Visit: www.thelittleblackgallery.com

Words by Emma Broomfield

For an extended selection of Spectrum images, visit www.thesundaytimes.co.uk/spectrum